Narrative

Between 08/01/2018 and 08/08/2018 an unknown subject entered the backstage area of the Wonders of Life (retired) exhibit. The subject enter the off limit area and removed custom clothing that adorned retired character "Buzzy". The items taken are a green military style cap, a red bomber jacket, and a pair of custom made rubber hands. The items are a part of Walt Disney World history and hold a value on the black market for collectors. There are many points of exit from the exhibit and the doors are unsecured. The building is constantly being utilized by 3rd party vendors and contractors.

WDW did not give anyone permission to take the custom made clothing.

I am willing to testify and prosecute should a suspect be identified.
